

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A workflow system comprising a plurality of workflow subsystems connected to a LAN (Local Area Network), these workflow subsystems being composed of 5 servers and clients, and provides a workflow system which permits an integrated management of the definitions of the business processes placed under decentralized management, through the server managing shipping documents, BPs (Business Processes)
10 describing shipping routes of shipping documents in the subsystem, and business process connection data to connect the BPs.